DAY 1	13:30 - pick - up in Quito. 17:00 - 17:30 Arrive to the lodge Dinner Night: Shaman's cleansing ceremony; A Shaman or Witchdoctor is one of the most important figures within the indigenous communities. He is responsible for healing the sick, and protecting them from evil spirits and bad energy. This visit will consist of a spiritual cleansing to promote positive energies and 'ward off evil spirits'.
DAY 2	Breakfast Morning: Canoe trip along the rivers: This trip will introduce you to the natural environment surrounding Gaia, via motorized canoes along the rivers Napo and Arajuno. You will have an opportunity to enjoy the natural scenery, bird watching, and with a little luck, monkeys on the river banks. Swimming in the river is an option, depending on the weather. Lunch Afternoon: Trek excursion; this is a mountain hike across the primary forests—You will explore and observe many natural wonders including medicinal plants, insects and animals. We will also visit 'Ceibo' the giant tree of the Amazon Dinner Night: Artisanal chocolate production
DAY 3	Breakfast Morning: Visit indigenous family; After a canoe - ride of 20 minutes upstream the Napo river; Visit to 'The Anaconda Island' where many Kwichua families live. Here you will become familiar with their customs and traditions. You will have an opportunity to sample 'chicha' (traditional beverage) and cassava, which is a basic feature of the Kwichwa diet. You will also learn about their tradition a hunting methods and use of the blowgun. Upon entering the island, you will pass through the margins of a small swamp inhabited by 'hoatzines' (prehistoric birds) Lunch Afternoon: Visit animal rescue center. 'Amazoonico' is one of the most important and highly regarded conservation projects in the Amazon. The proceeds from visiting here support the maintenance and reintegration of the animals. Among the animals you will see here are, alligators, tapirs, ocelots, toucans, anacondas, macaws and monkeys of various species. Dinner
DAY 4	Breakfast Morning: White River waterfalls; this entails a 35 minute truck-ride to the community of Rio Blanco, and a 30 minute walk from there to the magnificent waterfalls. You will have ample time to explore and swim in beautiful surroundings where it is common to find fossils and petrified wood. Lunch
